

Senior Planner/Principal Planner Position, London

Nexus Planning is an independent specialist planning and regeneration consultancy. Since the company was founded in 2013 it has grown significantly and is quickly emerging as a prominent national practice with offices in London, Reading, Manchester and Birmingham.

The company is advising both the private and public sector in specialist areas like higher density residential led and mixed use projects, town and city centre development schemes and the planning of new settlements and urban regeneration.

In recognition of its growing contribution, Nexus Planning was awarded Planning Consultancy of the Year by the RTPI in April 2020.

To help support our growing workload, we are looking to expand our London team with the appointment of a Senior Planner or Principal Planner (you are likely to have around 5 to 8 years' experience). Our current instructions include a significant number of retail, residential and education commissions, and particular experience in one of these sectors would be advantageous.

We offer great career opportunities and comprehensive support for your professional development. Nexus is employee owned, which stands us out from the crowd, and there is the potential for candidates to become shareholders and help us drive the company forward. We provide a competitive salary and benefits package and the opportunity to be an integral part of a highly successful and growing national planning practice.
